

Tremco Incorporated certifies the physical performance of TREMprime VB in approved applications. TREMprime VB is a two-part, chemically-curing epoxy primer intended for use in applications where concrete substrates exhibit higher than normal moisture signatures. It can be used in single and dual-coat configurations as explained in the manufacturer's application instructions, and meets all physical properties listed on the manufacturer's datasheet.